Description

An attractive antique Globe Wernicke sectional bookcase, comprising four glazed up-and-over sections above a plinth base. Constructed in oak with the original metal strap bindings and retaining its glazed doors, the bookcase offers excellent storage for books, collectables or decorative items. Finished in a warm rich oak colour with a lovely patina, this is a practical and highly sought-after piece of early 20th century furniture. Item Reference: M-6941 . Dimensions: Height – 142cm / Width – 87cm / Depth – 28cm CONDITION REPORT: Good overall condition with solid construction. The glazed up-and-over doors operate as intended. General marks, knocks and wear to the finish consistent with age and use, along with some light surface scratches. Overall, a sound and attractive example ready for use.
