Description

Exceptional Pair of Antique Vienna Porcelain Empire Amphora Vases & Covers – Signed F. Koller An outstanding and highly decorative pair of antique Vienna porcelain two-handled vases and covers, beautifully modelled in the form of classical Roman amphorae and executed in the finest vitrified hard-paste porcelain. Each vase is exquisitely hand-painted with finely detailed classical scenes, one depicting Minerva, while the companion vase is decorated with a corresponding mythological subject. The paintings display exceptional artistry and are further enhanced by lavish burnished and gilt decoration throughout. Raised on elegant pedestal bases with intricate Empire-style ornamentation, the bases are separately constructed and secured in the traditional manner with period bolts. The vases embody the sophistication and grandeur of the Empire period, combining classical inspiration with superb craftsmanship. Both pieces bear the famous Vienna beehive mark in underglaze blue to the base, indicating manufacture by the renowned Imperial Vienna Porcelain Manufactory. The principal painted panels are signed "F. Koller", attributed to Friedrich Ludwig von Köller, a highly regarded...
