Description

Antique 20th century waterfall bookcase in mahogany, very well made and of good quality. Featuring four open waterfall shelves to the front, providing an attractive display space for books, ornaments and decorative items, together with two drawers to the base offering practical additional storage. Standing on traditional bracket feet, this elegant bookcase retains its original handles, preserving the character and authenticity of the piece. The classic waterfall design combines practicality with timeless style, making it a versatile addition to a variety of interiors. Boasting gorgeous mahogany grain and rich colour throughout, this is a highly desirable example with plenty of warmth and character. The quality craftsmanship and refined proportions make it both functional and visually appealing. Presented in good condition, displaying beautiful grain, colour and craftsmanship throughout, this charming waterfall bookcase would make a wonderful addition to any home.
