Description

Finely knotted with soft wool and wonderful subtle colours, this is a really charming Persian rug dating to around 1900. Interestingly, the design has been borrowed from the famous Chi-Chi rugs woven in the Kuba region of neighbouring Azerbaijan in the 19th century. Rows of geometric ornaments are arranged on a subtle sky-blue field which is framed by an elegant 'Kufic' main border, the classic Chi-Chi rug format faithfully interpreted. It is a handsome rug in a small format which could adorn any kind of space and give it character. Excellent condition. Professionally cleaned.
