Description

Antique 20th century Victorian style side table in mahogany, very well made and of good quality. Beautifully carved throughout, this elegant piece showcases the decorative craftsmanship and refined styling inspired by the Victorian period. Featuring a striking triangular top inset with a beautiful blue leather writing surface, this distinctive table is both practical and highly decorative. Standing on graceful cabriole legs united by a shaped supporting stretcher, it offers excellent stability while enhancing its elegant proportions. Boasting gorgeous mahogany grain and rich colour throughout, this is a highly desirable example with plenty of warmth and character. The combination of intricate carving, quality materials and unusual triangular design makes it a particularly eye-catching piece. Presented in good condition, displaying beautiful grain, colour and craftsmanship throughout, this charming Victorian style side table would make a wonderful addition to any home.
