Description

Antique 20th century round coffee table in oak, very well made and of good quality. Featuring a beautifully carved edge, this attractive table showcases the quality craftsmanship and attention to detail associated with fine period furniture. Standing on a substantial turned central support, the table combines strength with elegant proportions, creating a timeless design that is both practical and decorative. Its pleasing size makes it a versatile piece, ideal for a living room, sitting room or reception area. Boasting gorgeous oak grain and rich colour throughout, this is a highly desirable example with plenty of warmth and natural character. The combination of quality construction, carved detailing and classic design makes it a striking addition to any interior. Presented in good condition, displaying beautiful grain, colour and craftsmanship throughout, this charming round coffee table would make a wonderful addition to any home.
