Description

A stunning antique 20th-century burr walnut writing table, very well made and of fine quality throughout. This elegant piece stands on beautifully shaped cabriole legs with finely carved knees and feet, showcasing exquisite craftsmanship and attention to detail. The table features three drawers to the front, each fitted with their original brass handles and fittings, and is beautifully cross-banded throughout. The burr walnut displays a magnificent grain and rich, warm colour, making this a truly standout piece. Rare and highly desirable, this writing table is both functional and decorative—perfect for adding sophistication and timeless charm to any home or study. In good condition and ready to be enjoyed for generations to come.
