Description

Antique 20th century Edwardian pair of tub chairs in mahogany, very well made and of good quality. A highly desirable matching pair, showcasing the elegant proportions and refined craftsmanship associated with the Edwardian period. Beautifully upholstered in a light-coloured fabric, these attractive tub chairs offer both comfort and timeless style. Standing on elegant turned legs fitted with original casters, they combine practicality with graceful period design. The mahogany frames display gorgeous grain and rich colour throughout, complemented by subtle carved detailing that enhances their character without detracting from their understated elegance. It is increasingly uncommon to find such a well-matched pair, making these chairs particularly desirable. Presented in good condition, with solid frames and beautiful craftsmanship throughout, this charming pair of Edwardian tub chairs would make a wonderful addition to a living room, bedroom, study or hallway and are a perfect addition to any home.
