Description

Antique 19th century Victorian pier cabinet in walnut, very well made and of good quality. Featuring a beautifully glazed front opening to reveal two internal shelves, this elegant cabinet provides an ideal display space for ceramics, glassware, collectibles or treasured items. The striking red interior creates a wonderful contrast against the rich walnut, beautifully showcasing displayed pieces. Standing on elegant turned legs, the cabinet is further enhanced by fine satinwood stringing, decorative inlays in a variety of contrasting woods and attractive brass mouldings throughout, demonstrating the exceptional craftsmanship associated with quality Victorian furniture. Boasting stunning walnut grain and rich colour throughout, this is a highly desirable example with exceptional warmth, character and visual appeal. The combination of elegant proportions, decorative detailing and quality materials makes it a true statement piece. Presented in good condition, displaying beautiful grain, colour and craftsmanship throughout, this superb Victorian pier cabinet is a particularly desirable example and would make a stunning addition to any home.
