Description

Antique 20th century Edwardian brass bell on an oak stand, exceptionally well made and of the finest quality. Beautifully designed, this decorative piece combines a finely crafted brass bell with an elegant oak stand, creating a charming and characterful display item. The bell is beautifully engraved to the front. Although the inscription is difficult to read in full, it adds to the authenticity, history and charm of the piece. The oak stand is attractively decorated with brass detailing and decorative plaques, showcasing excellent craftsmanship and attention to detail. Boasting gorgeous oak grain and rich colour throughout, this compact example is both elegant and highly decorative. Its small proportions make it ideal for display on a desk, side table, mantelpiece or cabinet. Presented in good condition, displaying beautiful grain, colour and craftsmanship throughout, this unusual Edwardian bell is a very desirable example and would make a perfect addition to any home.
