Description

This charming, tiny vanity-bag or 'chanteh' in Persian, woven during the second half 19th century by Shahsevan nomads in the Moghan region of Azerbaijan, might well have been used to contain a mirror or an item of jewellery. The weaving is particularly fine with original plain-weave back and selvages overbound in the colours used in the bag itself. Size: 19 x 15cm (8" x 6").

Internal Ref: BM41
