Description

A charming Queen Anne Revival walnut pier glass mirror dating from circa 1920, surmounted by a decorative oil painting depicting a mounted gentleman with three hounds in a traditional English landscape. The shaped crest is centred by a carved shell motif above a bevelled frame enclosing an oil on board depicting a mounted huntsman accompanied by three hounds in a country landscape. Beneath is a tall original mirror plate, all enclosed within a finely carved walnut frame with decorative chip-carved borders. The warm walnut timber has developed a rich mellow patina, while the mirror retains excellent clarity, making it both a practical and decorative addition to a hallway, dressing room or country house interior. Presented in good antique condition with age-related wear consistent with its age. The painted panel displays the craquelure and gentle wear expected of an original early 20th-century painting, adding to its character and authenticity. Circa: 1920
