Description

Antique 20th century Edwardian draw-leaf dining table in oak, very well made and of good quality. Featuring a practical draw-leaf extension mechanism, allowing the table to be easily extended whenever additional dining space is required. Standing on elegant turned legs united by a supporting stretcher, this attractive table showcases the quality craftsmanship and timeless styling associated with the Edwardian period. Its sturdy construction and well-balanced proportions make it both practical and visually appealing. Boasting gorgeous oak grain and rich colour throughout, this is a highly desirable example with plenty of warmth and natural character. The versatile design makes it ideal for both everyday family dining and entertaining guests. Presented in good condition, displaying beautiful grain, colour and craftsmanship throughout, this charming Edwardian draw-leaf dining table would make a wonderful addition to any home.
