Description

Antique 20th century side table in mahogany and burr walnut, very well made and of good quality. Featuring a stunning serpentine-shaped top with beautiful burr walnut veneers, elegantly crossbanded in mahogany, showcasing the quality craftsmanship and refined styling of the period. The table incorporates two drawers to the front, both retaining their original handles, providing practical storage while preserving the character and authenticity of the piece. Standing on elegant turned legs with finely reeded decoration, it combines graceful proportions with excellent stability. Boasting breathtaking burr walnut figuring together with gorgeous mahogany grain and rich colour throughout, this is a highly desirable example full of warmth and character. The beautiful serpentine shape and decorative detailing make it an eye-catching and versatile piece suitable for a wide range of interiors. Presented in good condition, displaying beautiful grain, colour and craftsmanship throughout, this elegant side table would make a wonderful addition to any home.
