Description

Constructed in beautifully figured mahogany with a rich, warm patina, this elegant press is finely decorated with intricate marquetry inlay, ebony stringing and chequered banding throughout. The upper section is enclosed by a pair of panelled doors with working lock and key, opening to reveal four original removable linen slides. The lower section is fitted with two short drawers over two long graduated drawers, retaining attractive brass swan-neck handles and matching marquetry decoration. Raised on bracket feet, the press is made in three sections—cornice, cupboard and chest—for ease of transport and installation. A handsome and practical late Georgian linen press of excellent quality, offering generous storage and outstanding decorative appeal.
