Description

A beautiful Antique Edwardian leather tub armchair in a rich warm cognac colour, combining timeless elegance with exceptional comfort. This stunning chair features a graceful curved barrel back, decorative brass stud detailing, and beautifully turned solid wooden legs with carved front stretcher, giving it strong classic English character. The aged leather has developed a lovely natural patina over time, adding warmth and authenticity. Perfect as a statement armchair for a living room, reading corner, study, library, boutique, or lounge area. Its compact proportions also make it ideal where space is limited but style matters. A rare and very characterful piece. Seat Height: 33 cm Very good vintage condition. Structurally solid and sturdy. The leather remains in very good order with only minor age related marks, scuffs, and natural patina consistent with normal vintage use, which only enhances its charm.
