Description

A good quality mahogany stick stand dating from the late 19th Century. It has a mahogany frame with turned supports and turned finials. It has three divisions and the base has it's original metal drip tray. It is in good condition for its age and is strong and sturdy. The mahogany has a lovely patina and there are no major damages. There are a few minor marks and light knocks but nothing detrimental. The painted finish on the drip tray is worn in places and has some marks and knocks but it displays well. It has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers. Please get in touch for an accurate quote to your location.
