Description

This vintage 18ct gold two stone diamond ring dates from the 1920s–30s and features a charming early 20th-century design. Set with two old cut diamonds totalling 0.36 carat, the stones are held side by side in a traditional claw setting, each full of character and vintage fire. The warm 18ct yellow gold band complements the soft glow of the old cuts beautifully. A romantic piece from a bygone era, rich in style and sentiment.
