Description

This antique 18ct gold ruby and diamond gypsy ring dates to the Edwardian period and is full of refined period detail. At its centre sits an old cut diamond, flanked by two rubies with subtle pinkish hues, all set flush into the gold in a traditional gypsy setting. The shoulders are delicately designed with scrollwork and openwork detailing, adding elegance to its sturdy form. A graceful and characterful piece from a bygone era. SIZE UK P / US 7 ½ SPECIFICATION Width. 7mm at widest Weight. 3.65 grams 18k gold ERA Edwardian 1901-1910 STAMPS & HALLMARKS UK Hallmark 18 Chester J (1909-1910) CONDITION Very Good – This ring is in overall lovely condition. There is a small chip to the diamond which isn't detrimental in any way. Otherwise, the gemstones are in excellent order, held safely in their settings. The gold metalwork has only light signs of wear and the construction is very good. There is a clear hallmark present. This ring has many years of enjoyment for its new owner ahead of it.
