Description

Antique Edwardian period, art nouveau, English sterling silver dressing table / shelf mirror. Condition: Very good condition. No noticeable dents or bends to the silver. When inspected, one of the (many) pin nails that secures the silver to the back is missing (cosmetic only). The glass is also in very good order with minor foxing and a few small, light scratches. The back and arm are completely secure. A replacement ribbon has been added somewhat recently, to hold the arm in the required position. Fully hallmarked as follows: F.M&S (maker's mark) Birmingham Assay Office Lion passant Date letter for 1902 Measurements: Overall: 25cm x 19cm Glass: 20.25cm x 15.25cm Weight: 758g
