Description

A delightful cold-painted bronze modelled as a young Arab boy seated in quiet concentration, absorbed in reading from a parchment held delicately in his hands. Signed with the Bergman "B" for Franz Bergman, the figure displays fine detail and sensitive modelling, from the expressive face to the relaxed posture. His pale robe contrasts beautifully with the darker patina of his skin, while the red cap or 'fez' adds a vivid accent. The composition conveys innocence, curiosity, and the intimate poetry typical of Viennese bronze craftsmanship. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION Height: 8 cm Width: 5 cm Depth: 8 cm
