Description

English Mid-20th Century twin-candle electric wall sconce in gilt metal. Recently rewired to British Standard, with a beautifully warm gilded surface and elegant, sculptural form. A striking decorative lighting piece that brings character and soft illumination to any interior. Why We Love This ... This Mid-20th Century wall sconce has that perfect blend of elegance and atmosphere. The twin candle-style lights give it a timeless silhouette, while the gilded metal surface brings warmth and subtle glamour to a room. It's the kind of piece that works beautifully in both traditional and contemporary interiors - understated, sculptural and quietly luxurious. Rewired to British Standard, it's ready to install and enjoy. Whether placed in a hallway, sitting room, bedroom or dining space, it adds a soft, flattering glow and a touch of classic English charm.
