Description

Matched 'pair' of late C19th Liberty & Co. Moorish style octagonal occasional tables . Complementary pair of varying design with multiple complex inlaid designs of walnut , fruitwood , nacre-shell and abalone. The sides of arched form in the style of 'Moorish' or Levantine architecture with parquetry work and abalone panels. The inset top of one table having a geometric inlaid tessellated design with multiple roundels of fruitwood and shell , the other table having an inlaid scripted shell Bismillah tughra , set within a star surround . The form and design of these tables undoubtedly lead to the attribution of Liberty & Co ,London , who commissioned, stocked and sold these tables from their fashionable 'Eastern Bazaar' range and basement department. Both tables in excellent original condition with no damage or losses . One table of marginally larger proportions. Smart matched pair of decorative tables to add an exotic accent to an interior scheme. The price is for the 'pair' of tables. H 20" and 20.5" W 16" and 16.5" D 16" and 16.5" Middle East c. 1890
