Description

A finely proportioned mid-19th century English Carolean Style wing armchair with original castors, elegant upholstery and Castle Ashby provenance - comfort with presence. Why We Love This ... Carolean style wing chairs are prized for their sculptural presence and enveloping comfort, and this example has both in abundance. The proportions are particularly pleasing - generous wings, deep seat, confident stance - and the combination of a quality frame, refined upholstery and documented provenance elevates it beyond the ordinary.
