Description

Pair of William IV mahogany side chairs, c.1830, with flame mahogany backs and Regency stripe upholstery - Elegant, robust and full of period character Why We Love Them ... William IV furniture has that wonderful balance of Regency refinement and practical sturdiness - and this pair captures it perfectly. The flame mahogany backs bring richness and depth, while the robust frames have the reassuring solidity of true country-house furniture. They're elegant enough for a dining room, yet strong and comfortable enough for everyday use - the kind of chairs you genuinely want to sit in at the end of a long day, tea and cake in hand.
