Description

A matching pair of 18th-century Italian walnut corner cupboards with warm colour, original blacksmith-made locks, and elegant proportions - decorative, practical, and increasingly rare. Why We Love These ... Corner cupboards are always appealing, but pairs are notably harder to find. These have a great sense of balance and presence, with colour that immediately draws the eye. The survival of original blacksmith-made locks adds authenticity, while the honest condition gives them a relaxed, country house feel rather than anything overly formal.
