Description

A 20th-century English japanned coffee table with richly painted scenes, warm surface colour, and a protective glass top - decorative, practical, and full of character. Why We Love This ... Japanned furniture has a unique ability to bring character and narrative into an interior, and this table does so beautifully. The painted scenes give it personality and warmth, while the restrained restoration and glass top make it both usable and easy to live with. It feels settled, decorative, and quietly confident.
