Description

A refined late 18th/early 19th century Sheraton Revival kidney desk with original leather top and handles, elegant curves and honest country house condition. Why We Love This ... Kidney desks are always appealing, but examples that retain their original fittings and leather are increasingly hard to find. This desk feels honest and unforced - not over-restored, yet well cared for - with a quiet confidence that makes it immediately attractive. It is a piece that invites use while still being deeply decorative.
