Description

This stunning Regency period sofa table is a superb example, featuring rich rosewood with intricate brass inlay work that enhances its elegant aesthetic. The table is presented in excellent condition, showcasing the fine quality of its construction and detailing. The rectangular top features drop leaves, allowing for versatile use, whether fully extended or compact. The front is fitted with two drawers, the reverse side mirrors the front, giving the piece a fully finished appearance on all sides, making it perfect for free-standing placement within an interior. This sofa table stands on a support column with 4 brass inlaid sweeping legs, finished with brass lion's paw feet and concealed castors. A true statement piece boasting a wonderful colour and grain, this Regency brass inlaid rosewood sofa table is ideal for those who appreciate the opulence and craftsmanship of the early 19th century. It is perfect for a refined living space, study, or hallway, adding a touch of historical charm and sophistication. W closed 95cm (37.5") D 68.5cm (27") H 69cm (27.5") W open 152.5cm (5ft)
