Description

A late 19th century highly decorative and unusual German cow horn table in rare, original condition. The table consists of a shaped pine top covered with its' original deep green faux leather, possibly Rexine, this being secured with brass rosettes – this covering could be replaced with leather etc. if required. The top is supported by two columns covered in cow hide joined by a cow hide covered cross stretcher, this having a wonderful patination. At the base of each column are four cow horn embellishments leading down to larger cow horn supports. This table is in very good, original condition, is of stable construction and can go straight into a home. Provenance: from a private residence, Germany Size: Height: 29.5" / 75cm Width: 24.5" / 62cm Depth: 14.5" / 37cm
