Description

Swedish Mid-Century Still Life, 1930s – Oil on Board in Carved Frame A vibrant Swedish mid-century still life from the 1930s, depicting tulips in a patterned vase against a bold red background. Framed in an antique carved frame. Full Description A striking Swedish mid-century still life painting, oil on board, dating to the 1930s. The composition features a vase of white tulips set against a vivid red backdrop, accompanied by a smaller blue vessel and chair detail. The artist's confident use of colour and simplified form gives the work a modernist clarity while retaining warmth and charm. Presented in an antique carved frame that complements the bold palette, this piece exemplifies Scandinavian mid-century sensibility – balancing decorative appeal with painterly precision. The contrast between the red ground and the pale flowers creates a dynamic yet harmonious visual rhythm.
