Description

Antique Campaign Chest with Hinged Lift-Up Top A distinctive antique campaign chest with octagonal form and hinged lift-up top, featuring brass mounts and handles. Compact, characterful, and full of period charm. Full Description An unusual and handsome campaign chest of octagonal form, dating from the late 19th to early 20th century. Constructed in richly toned wood with brass mounts, corner straps, and side carrying handles, this piece embodies the practical elegance of traditional campaign furniture. The hinged lift-up top opens to reveal useful internal storage, making it both decorative and functional. The chest's geometric shape and warm patina give it sculptural presence, while the brass detailing adds a refined military aesthetic typical of travel furniture from the colonial period. This versatile piece works beautifully as a side table, lamp stand, or storage chest, bringing authenticity and craftsmanship to any interior.
