Description

A fine George II mahogany drop-leaf dining table with cabriole legs and claw and ball feet. Untouched, well-cared-for condition with superb colour and authenticity. Why We Love This ... A wonderfully honest and untouched George II dining table, full of warmth, integrity, and period charm. The colour is rich and mellow, the cabriole legs beautifully shaped, and the claw and ball feet are crisp and characterful. It has that rare quality of being both practical and deeply authentic - a table that has lived a long, well-cared-for life without losing its soul.
