Description

Exceptional Signed Kutchinsky 5.25ct Diamond and Platinum Full Eternity Ring, Circa 1960s (Possibly Later) An exquisite and timeless masterpiece by the celebrated London House, Kutchinsky, this full eternity ring captures the pinnacle of British luxury. Expertly crafted in solid PT950 platinum, the band is set throughout with a continuous row of brilliant-cut diamonds, totaling approximately 5.25 carats. Each stone has been carefully selected for its luminosity, resulting in a display that is both bright and exceptionally lively. The interior of the band bears the prestigious "Kutchinsky" signature and the CLM lozenge mark, hallmarks of authenticity that guarantee this piece as an original work from one of the most storied names in fine jewellery. With its solid platinum construction and impressive total diamond weight, this ring offers both significant intrinsic value and the enduring elegance synonymous with the Kutchinsky legacy. This piece is accompanied by its original maker's case and carries esteemed provenance, preserving its complete history and collector appeal. A sophisticated choice for the discerning collector, this eternity ring is not merely a p...
