Description

Striking 1840 Italian oil portrait of Girolamo Luxardo in original gilt frame Why We Love This ... A splendid mid-19th-century oil on canvas depicting Girolamo Luxardo, painted around 1840 and presented in its original gilt frame. The sitter's strong features, expressive gaze, and distinctive sideburns are rendered with great skill, giving the portrait a commanding presence. The artist captures not only likeness but personality - confident, self-assured, and with a hint of good humour. The refined clothing and detailed jacket further demonstrate the painter's technical ability and attention to character. A charismatic and engaging portrait with real decorative impact.
