Description

Art Nouveau pine chest of drawers with original brown scumble paint, worn copper handles and rich aged patina - a simple, honest English antique. Why We Love This ... There's something deeply appealing about a piece that was never trying to be grand - just useful, dependable, and quietly handsome. This chest has that wonderful honesty: pine construction, original brown scumble paint, worn copper handles, and a patina that only a century of real life can create. It's modest, characterful, and full of warmth.
