Description

Late 17th century English oak gateleg table with bobbin legs, original hinges and warm patina - a rare, authentic early oak piece. Why We Love This ... A wonderfully early example of English oak furniture, full of soul, history, and unmistakable 17th-century character. The bobbin-turned legs, original iron hinges, and warm, centuries-old patina make this a piece that instantly anchors a room. Its compact footprint and practical gateleg form mean it works beautifully in both period and contemporary interiors - a true survivor from the age of William & Mary.
