Description

18th century Georgian oak gateleg drop leaf dining table with warm patina, original iron hinges, turned legs and historic character. A versatile, space-saving antique ideal for both period and modern interiors. Why We Love This ... A true Georgian workhorse - honest, practical, beautifully proportioned, and full of lived history. The mellow oak top has the kind of patina that only centuries can create, while the gateleg form offers remarkable versatility. Whether used as a dining table, occasional table, or a sculptural piece in a country kitchen, it brings warmth, authenticity, and quiet elegance to any interior.
