Description

A fine Regency rosewood centre table of outstanding quality, featuring a beautifully figured Rio rosewood top with a finely fitted frieze. The table stands on an elegant platform base with a hexagonal column enriched with decorative mouldings. The platform is supported by boldly carved lion's paw feet with finely carved capitals above, showcasing the superb craftsmanship and distinctive design associated with the Regency period. The table retains a traditional tilt-top mechanism, allowing the top to be raised for ease of storage when not in use. Presented in good condition throughout, this is a striking and highly decorative centre table, displaying exceptional colour and figuring to the Rio rosewood and making an impressive focal point for any interior. Size: Height 28 1/2" (72cm) Width 49" (124cm) Depth 49" (124cm)
