Description

This vintage 18ct white gold cluster ring centres on a creamy half pearl, encircled by a scalloped border of rose-cut diamonds that catch the light with subtle glimmer. The milgrain edging adds a touch of delicate detailing, while the slim band enhances the ring's graceful form. Its combination of soft lustre and gentle sparkle gives this piece an undeniable sense of vintage charm. Part of our vintage pearl ring collection. SIZE UK R / US 8 $\frac{3}{4}$ - Free sizing available SPECIFICATION Pearl width. 5mm Face diameter. 12.5mm Weight. 2.65 grams 18k gold ERA 1920s – 30s CONDITION Very Good – Three of diamonds have picked up some small chips over the years, however these aren't detrimental in any way and all are held securely in their settings. The pearl is in super shape without any degradation. The gold metalwork is in great order with hardly a sign of any wear and a highly polished finish.
