Description

This exquisite antique Italian five-light Maria Theresa chandelier features a delicate, open cage frame with an elegant silvered top coronet and glass dish. It is opulently dressed with swags of button crystals and faceted pear drops, and beautifully anchored by a large, classic bottom ball. Design & Craftsmanship embodying the aristocratic grandeur of the traditional Maria Theresa chandelier style, this piece is masterfully handcrafted. The open, airy cage frame is constructed using clear glass and sweeping arms that hold a fine glass bobèche drip pan and the lighting elements. The chandelier catches and refracts light brilliantly thanks to its heavy embellishments. The entire frame is gracefully draped in swags of button crystals and faceted pear drops dangle throughout the framework to add movement and sparkle. The lighting fixture is beautifully finished at its base with a prominent, luminous bottom ball crystal. This lovely chandelier is perfect for casting an elegant, ambient glow across dining rooms, living spaces, hallways, stairwells and bedrooms. Ideal for vintage, classical, and transitional interior spaces seeking a theatrical or opulent touch.
