Description

For your consideration is this fabulously stylish 1930's Art Deco cocktail cabinet. This dry bar dates to the 1930's and has all the bells and whistles you want from a cocktail cabinet. The upper interior has a mirrored base and mirrored backing. The lower section of the cabinet opens to reveal a very generously sized space for glasses and bottles. This area will take full size liquor bottles. There is also a drawer which would ideal for napkins & cocktail utensils. The cabinet itself is veneered in the most glorious walnut, with heavily figured patterns, the bakelite handles finish this piece to perfection. We've had the whole cabinet restored and so comes to you in great condition. Overall size of this cabinet is also very appealing, large enough to house all your requirements but not so big and rambling to take over a room. For international customers this piece will be custom crated with door to door delivery.
