Description

An Antique Victorian Glass Butter Dish with beautifully engraved silver plated lid and stand. The glass bowl has a radial starburst, giving a bright, prismatic look when it catches the light. The octagonal base plate is richly engraved with scrollwork, fan motifs and small leaf details in a repeating border. The lid presents the same engraved decoration to match the base, creating a cohesive set designed for formal table service - circa 1890. * This piece works beautifully for butter, soft cheeses, petits fours or as a lidded sweetmeat dish. Measurements: Height: 2 1/2" (approx. 6.5cm) Diameter of base: 6 1/2" (approx. 6.5cm) Total weight: 552g In good condition – The silver plate shows only light surface wear consistent with age and gentle use. There are no chips or cracks to the glass.
