Description

This powerful bronze bull captures the raw strength and tense vitality of a standing bull, poised mid-stride with muscular form and lowered head. The rich, dark patina enhances the finely modelled anatomy, from the taut shoulders to the sinewed legs, embodying Barye's mastery of animalier sculpture. Signed "Barye" and inscribed F. Barbedienne Foundry, the piece bears the prestigious gold "FB" medallion, signifying a cast of the highest quality from one of the most important 19th-century French foundries. Set upon a naturalistic base, the sculpture conveys both movement and authority, exemplifying the enduring excellence of Barye's celebrated oeuvre.
