Description

This antique Albert Chain features uniform curb links, a T-bar and a double dog clip fastening, measuring a length of 15", modelled in sterling silver. The components are all original, made in Birmingham in 1910, at the end of the Edwardian era. An Albert chain is a decorative chain initially used to attach a pocket watch to the wearer's clothing. The chain was named after Prince Albert, who was said to have been fond of wearing watch chains. The Dog clip would have been used to attach a pocket watch or fob, and the T-Bar would go through the buttonhole of a waistcoat to secure it in place. METAL Sterling Silver MEASUREMENTS 15" length The links measure 7.38mm across The dog clips measure 2.2cm x 0.8cm T-Bar measures 4.0cm WEIGHT 57.87 grams HALLMARKS There is a lion mark on every link Middle link - EW&S Dog Clips - EW&S, Lion mark, Date letter I (1910) T-bar - EW&S, Lion mark, Date letter I (1910) CONDITION This antique silver Albert watch chain remains in excellent condition. The links show minor surface wear and natural antique patina. Having all original components makes this a desirable chain in fabulous condition. Item Number - SD1015
