Description

A fine George III mahogany chest of drawers displaying the elegant Sheraton influence so characteristic of late 18th century English furniture. Crafted from well figured mahogany, the chest features satinwood banding that highlights the clean lines and refined proportions of the period. The four graduated drawers retain their original brass handles and central keyholes, offering excellent storage while preserving the authenticity of the piece. Standing on shaped bracket feet and finished with a warm, rich patina, this chest is a superb example of Georgian craftsmanship—ideal for both traditional and contemporary interiors. A versatile and decorative antique that brings genuine period charm to any room.

Key Features • Genuine George III period mahogany chest of drawers • Attractive Sheraton style satinwood banding • Four graduated drawers with original brass handles • Warm, well preserved Georgian patina • Decorative inlay border to the top • Stands on classic bracket feet • Excellent storage and timeless elegance • Ideal for bedrooms, hallways, living spaces, or refined interiors
