Description

A well-proportioned antique 19th century oak dresser, comprising a open plate rack above a generous dresser base fitted with three drawers retaining brass oval handles. Below, a distinctive shaped arched apron is supported by square legs united by a potboard base, creating an elegant and practical design. The rack features attractively shaped sides and offers ample display space. Constructed in oak with a rich, deep colour, this is a handsome and characterful piece. Item Reference: M-6912A . Dimensions: Height – 202.5cm / Width – 159cm / Depth – 45cm / Surface Height - 74cm CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with signs of age and use. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks and scratches throughout. There is fading and some unevenness of colour, particularly to the sides of the rack. Historic repairs have been carried out over its lifetime, including strengthening blocks to the rear feet. Overall, the dresser remains structurally solid and sound. Our experienced carpenter thoroughly inspects, repairs and restores each item in our collection to ensure it is fully prepared for use in your home. For a clear and accurate understand...
