Description

An antique Austrian display cocktail cabinet attributed to August Ungethüm, Vienna, circa 1905, designed in the Secessionist and Wiener Werkstätte manner. The cabinet combines refined architectural form with richly decorative detail, featuring warm figured veneers, geometric inlay panels and stylised marquetry motifs to the upper and lower doors. Ebonised column supports with gilt detailing frame the central mirrored section, while the upper glazed cabinet provides display storage for glassware, ceramics or decorative objects.
