Description

A charming antique 18th century oak Bible box of traditional rectangular form, constructed in oak and retaining a rich, untouched colour and patina developed over centuries of use. The hinged plank top opens to reveal a spacious interior. To the front, the box retains its original iron lock plate and clasp. The front is also carved with the initials "T I". A honest and characterful example, displaying attractive grain throughout and all the charm expected of an early country-made oak piece. Item Reference: M-6964 . Dimensions: Height – 25cm / Width – 68.5cm / Depth – 40cm CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with age-related wear consistent with use. There are surface marks, scratches and minor imperfections to the timber, together with a historic split to the back right-hand corner of the lid which has been repaired and is solid. The original iron lock plate and clasp remain in place, although no key is present. Overall, the box is structurally sound with a rich colour and pleasing patina. Our experienced carpenter thoroughly inspects, repairs and restores each item in our collection to ensure it is fully prepared for use in your home. For a clear a...
