Robert Falcucci (1900–1989) Bouquet A delightful Impressionist-style depiction of a bouquet of flowers, painted with vibrant colours and great confidence by Robert Falcucci. His floral paintings are particularly sought after for their decorative appeal. Signed lower right and beautifully presented in its original Montparnasse frame. Following the First World War, Falcucci studied in Paris at the École des Beaux-Arts and the École des Arts Décoratifs. He enjoyed a successful career as a commercial artist, producing advertising posters for the Renault motor company. His posters remain highly collectible, with the auction record for one of his Renault designs exceeding £15,000. Alongside his commercial work, Falcucci continued to paint and exhibited regularly at the Salon des Artistes Français and the Salon des Indépendants in Paris. In 1967 he was awarded a Gold Medal at the Colonial Exhibition in Marrakech, and he subsequently received a number of other honours and distinctions.
